

Referee

- The home team is responsible for paying the referee's fee and expenses
- This should be done before the game
- Both team managers should ensure all players line up for boot inspection

Referee

- In the event of a referee not being available the teams if they so wish mutually agree to an alternative referee
- Both teams must append a note to team lines agreeing to this
- If there is no referee papered wait until the Match Secretary calls you

Referee

- LAWS of the GAME
 - Number 5

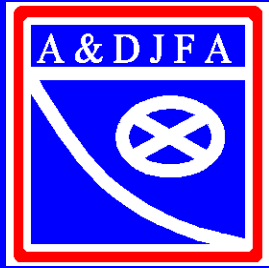

- The decisions of the referee concerning facts connected with play are final

Referee

- You must cooperate with the referee
- The referee has the authority to request team officials to remove themselves from the touchline
- The referee has the authority to request the assistance of a team official to assist in the control of spectators on the touchline
- When asked, a team official must provide the referee with his name and position in the club

Referee

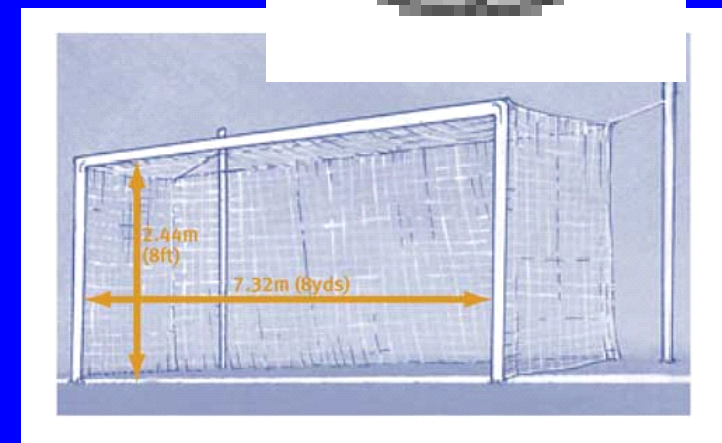

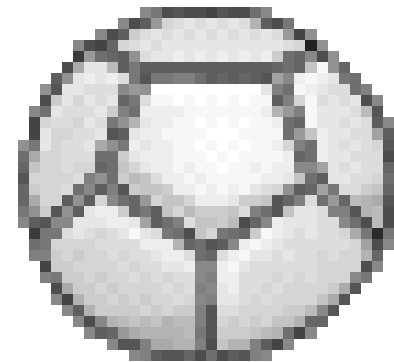

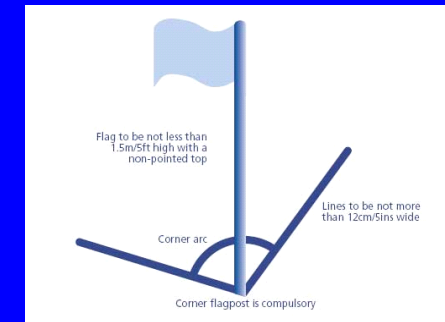

- If you have any legitimate concerns regarding the conduct of the referee you must put them in writing to the Association Secretary
- Do not verbally harangue or abuse the referee
- You have also a responsibility to control your players and supporters

The Game

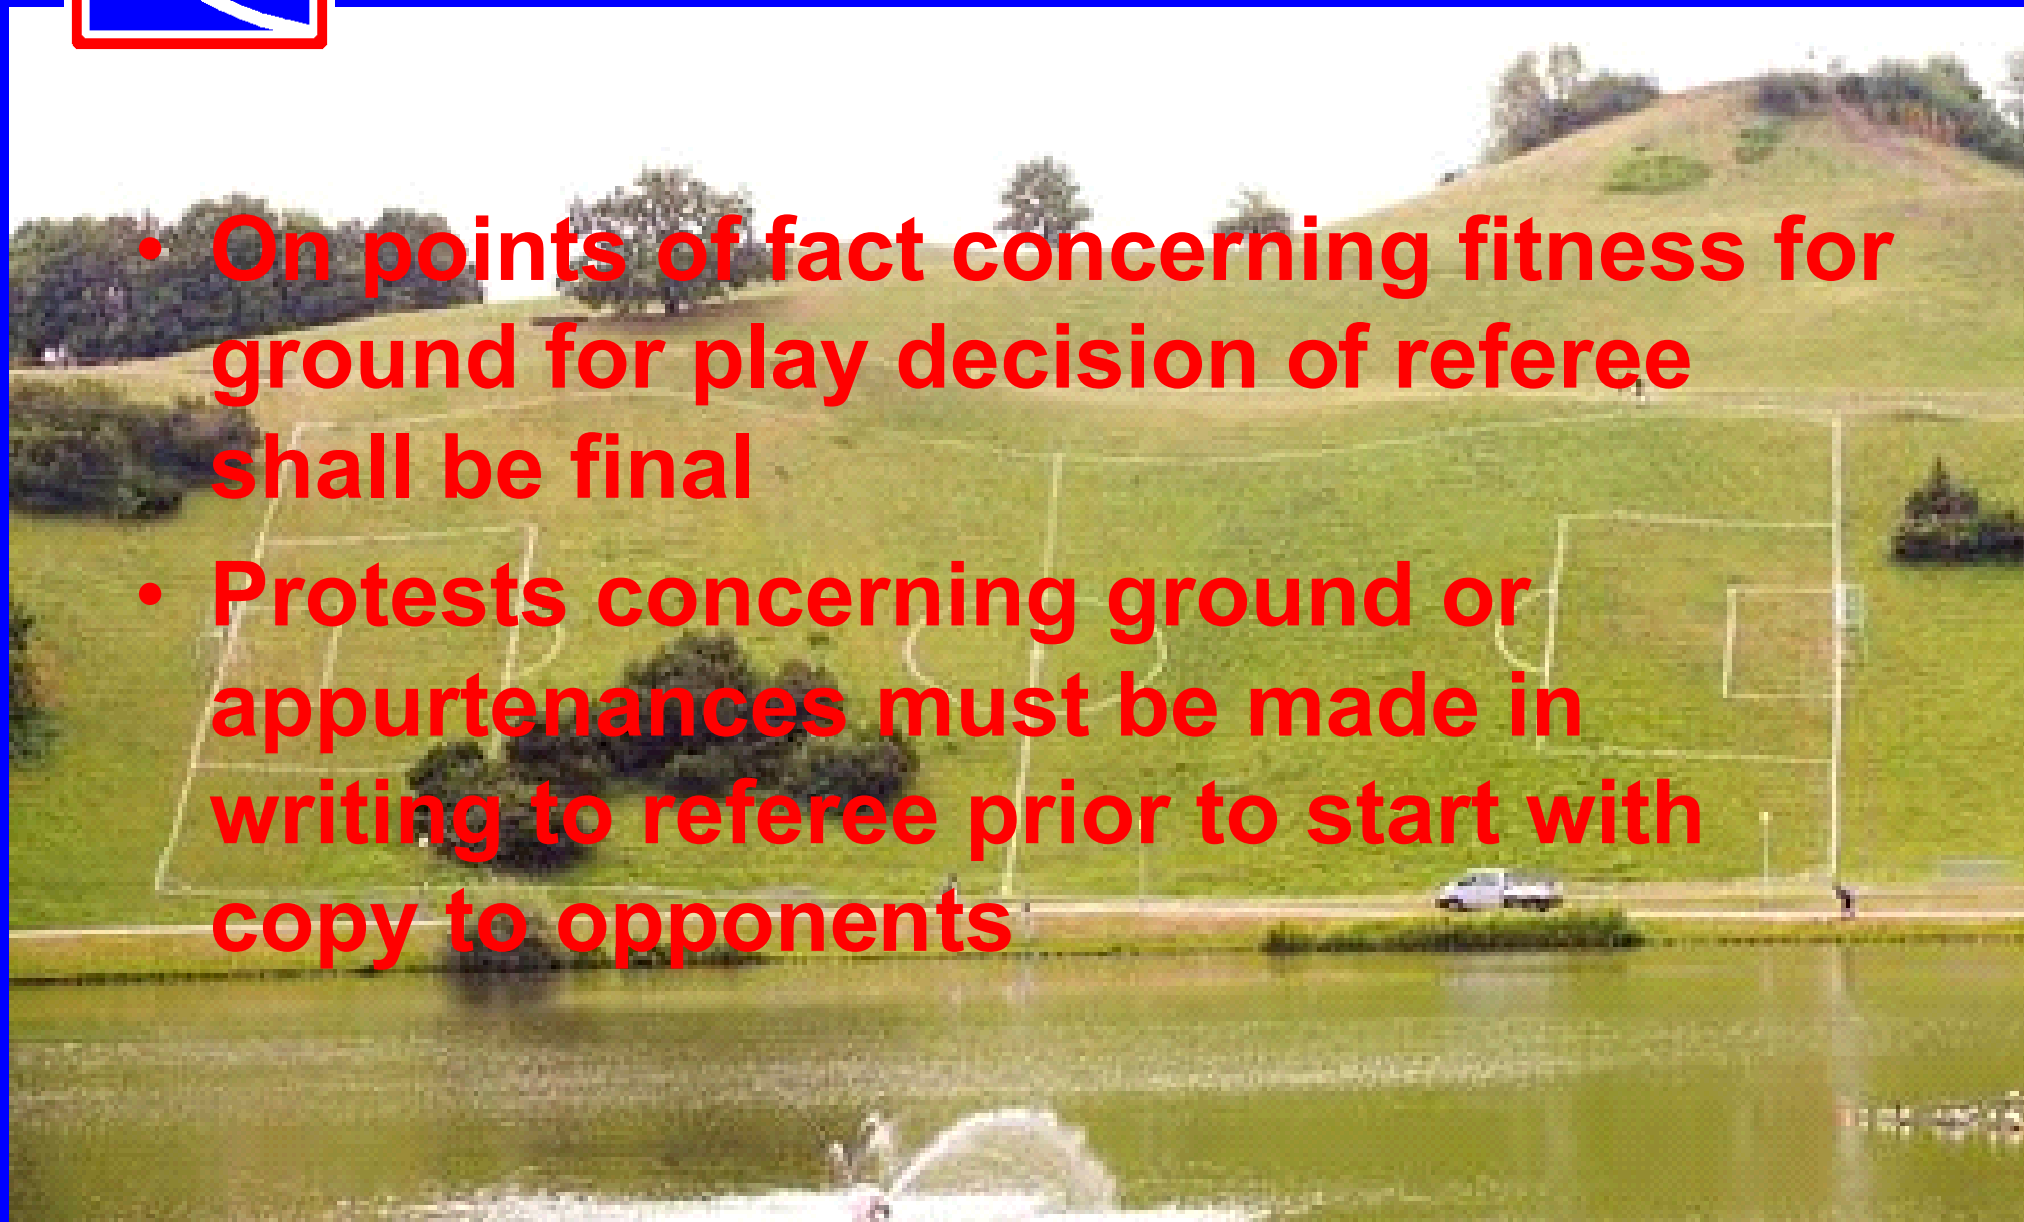

- The home team must provide goal nets and corner flags
- Both home and away teams should each have a match ball. The visiting team's ball will only be used if the home team ball is declared unplayable or lost

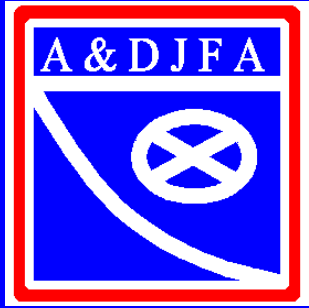

The Game

- On points of fact concerning fitness for ground for play decision of referee shall be final
- Protests concerning ground or appurtenances must be made in writing to referee prior to start with copy to opponents

The Game

- 13's & 14's Thirty-five minutes each way
- 15's & 16's Forty minutes each way
- 17's & 19's Forty-five minutes each way

The Game

- All local cup ties played to a finish extra time and penalties if required
- Only replays in Scottish Cup
- 13', 14's , 15 & 16's Ten Minutes each way
- 17's & 19's Fifteen Minutes each way